Saint John Wall Catholic School

A Catholic School For All

Saint John Wall Catholic School is a uniform school. Pupils are expected to wear full school uniform at all times. Pupils will be either sent home to change if they are not correctly dressed for school, sent to the St Francis Centre or given spare uniform in school to borrow.

We all come to school dressed for the business of education. This is explained to parents at their induction interview. We are proud of our school and of our uniform. When we wear our uniform correctly, it is an outward sign that we are proud to belong to the Saint John Wall School community.

A letter is posted to every family each July stating the exact uniform requirements. Uniform policy is also available at all times on the school website www.sjw.bham.sch.uk

All pupils are encouraged to take pride in their personal appearance. The Leadership team and the Pastoral team reserve the right to take appropriate action to ensure all students dress appropriately (including makeup, jewellery, hairstyles) to enhance the reputation and reinforce the ethos of Saint John Wall Catholic School.
