

Saint John Wall Catholic School – A Catholic School For All

'To educate each and every unique child in our care to hear and respond to what God calls them to be'

Head of Year and Teacher of Science

Saint John Wall Catholic School is a highly successful oversubscribed 11-16 school with a mixed and diverse population, serving the community of North West Birmingham. Over 50% of our pupils qualify for additional Pupil Premium funding, and there are over 50 different languages spoken by members of our school community!

The Role

- To support the Catholic ethos of the school, and to safeguard the well-being of all pupils in school.
- Contributing to the policies through which those aims and objectives might be realised – safeguarding, behaviour, uniform policies
- Participating in all aspects of pupil welfare, safeguarding and well-being planning.
- To contribute to the wider needs of the year group by monitoring and evaluating progress towards year group specific priorities as determined by the Pastoral Team.
- To lead and report on appropriate, swift and effective actions as identified specifically for attendance, punctuality, safeguarding and behaviour for the year group.
- Raising pupil levels of attainment and achievement.
- Developing within the year group a sense of community, focusing on personal and academic excellence, the development of the whole person, positive relationships, care for others and a spirit of mutual respect and cooperation.
- Teaching responsibilities as per the Teacher of Science job description.
- Undertake daily duties before, during and after school.
- Undertake any additional responsibilities as requested by the Headteacher.
